

Appointments: Continuing Procedure

1 Purpose

PLEASE NOTE: All human resource management policy instruments are currently under review to ensure alignment with the new Enterprise Agreement. Contact the People Portfolio for more information.

To outline the appointment processes for continuing positions.

2 Scope

This Procedure applies to all continuing positions.

3 Procedure Overview

This Procedure covers the appointment processes and conditions for all continuing positions.

4 Procedures

4.1 Appointment process

All appointments to continuing positions will normally be made by competitive selection using the University's Recruitment and Selection Procedures.

The employing cost centre must first seek approval to advertise the position by completing the Request to Advertise and Business Case form which must be forwarded with the specified attachments to the People Portfolio.

Following approval the recruitment and selection process commences.

Appointments to continuing positions will be made by means of a written letter of engagement from the Chief People Officer detailing the terms of the appointment. The appointment will be subject to a written acceptance from the appointee.

The appropriate documentation including all required signatures must be completed prior to the Employee commencing duty.

Appointments to continuing positions may also be made by internal transfer. Refer to Appointments: Internal Transfer and Secondment Procedure.

4.2 Appointment conditions

4.2.1 Classification level and step

Irrespective of the source of funding (e.g. research grants) all appointments will be made at step one of the classification level unless authorised by the Delegate.

4.2.2 Probation

Employees appointed on a continuing basis will normally serve an initial probationary period prior to having their continuing appointment confirmed.

For more information, refer to Appointments: Probationary Procedure.

4.2.3 Concurrent appointments

Where an Employee is required to do additional work (irrespective of whether the work is for another department) a variation to their terms of engagement will be made.

The Chief People Officer will advise the Employee, in writing, of the variation to their conditions prior to the additional work being carried out. Faculties or sections will be required to organise the payment of salaries where applicable.
