

Superannuation Procedure

1 Purpose

PLEASE NOTE: All human resource management policy instruments are currently under review to ensure alignment with the new Enterprise Agreement. Contact the People Portfolio for more information.

To provide Employees with information in relation to superannuation entitlements provided through the University's superannuation schemes.

2 Scope

This Procedure applies to all Employees.

Exclusions: Casual Employees.

3 Procedure Overview

This Procedure details the conditions and entitlements relating to the University's superannuation schemes.

4 Procedures

4.1 Superannuation schemes

On 1 July 1991, Council resolved that UniSuper (previously SSAU and TESS) be established as the superannuation scheme for all new Employees. From 1 October 2000, the UniSuper Defined Benefit Plan/Accumulation 2 Plan and UniSuper Accumulation 1 Plan were formed.

The rights and benefits under the schemes operating within the University are governed at all times by the Trust Deed and Rules, and a member may refer to a copy of these from the People Portfolio.

All superannuation funds operating within the University are 'complying' funds in accordance with the requirements of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.

The superannuation schemes currently operating for Employees of the University are:

- UniSuper Defined Benefit/Accumulation 2 Plan

- UniSuper Accumulation 1 Plan
- QSuper Defined Benefit Plan^{*}
- QSuper State Plan^{*}
- QSuper Accumulation Plan^{*}.

^{*}QSuper Plans are no longer offered to new Employees and are only available to those Employees who chose to stay, effective 1 July 1991.

4.2 Choice of superannuation fund

The University exclusively utilises the superannuation providers used by the University as at the date of certification of the Enterprise Agreement.

4.3 Commencing employment

All new Employees will be advised of the requirements for their superannuation scheme membership in the offer of appointment.

Eligible Employees will, from the date of commencement, either:

- automatically contribute to the appropriate Superannuation Scheme in the case of 'contributory' scheme members; and/or
- receive University contributions to their 'non-contributory' scheme under the productivity award/Superannuation Guarantee Charge (SGC) requirements.

The University will make employer superannuation contributions as follows:

Full-time and fractional Employees engaged on a continuing appointment.	17% employer superannuation contributions including membership and entitlements.
Employees engaged on a contingent funded appointment.	17% employer superannuation contributions including membership and entitlements.
Full-time and fractional Employees engaged on a fixed-term appointment of more than 12 months [*] .	17% employer superannuation contributions including membership and entitlements.
All other Employees.	Employer superannuation contributions in accordance with the Superannuation

*From the first pay period on or after 1 January 2021, the University employer superannuation contributions for all fixed-term Employees will be 17%. The University will engage in discussions with superannuation providers to clarify membership options for the broader group of fixed-term Employees.

4.4 Ceasing employment

All Employees ceasing employment with the University will receive information on their superannuation benefits with their termination documentation.
