

Domestic Students in Fee-paying Undergraduate Programs Policy

1 Purpose

To provide information and guidance on fee-paying undergraduate programs for domestic students

2 Scope

All USQ staff and Students

3 Policy Statement

1. Australian citizens who satisfy both the University's general entry requirements and the program entry requirements may be admitted to undergraduate fee-paying places in any particular program, except where the student has run out of Student Learning Entitlement, or the student chooses not to be Commonwealth Supported in a program and has notified USQ in writing.
2. From 1 January 2005, Australian permanent residents and New Zealand citizens may be admitted as fee-paying students in undergraduate programs, subject to meeting the entry requirements of that program and to the availability of a place.
3. All domestic students, including fee-paying undergraduate and post-graduate students, will be admitted and enrolled through Student Administration and not through agents.
