Learning and Teaching Policy

1 Purpose

To provide a framework for learning and teaching across the University.

2 Scope

This policy applies to learning and teaching undertaken in the University's Coursework Programs and Courses.

3 Policy Statement

The University is committed to the continuous enhancement of the quality of learning and teaching, and to promoting a culture of learning and teaching excellence.

This Policy aligns with the:

• Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021: Standard 3.1 Program (Course) Design, 3.2 Staffing

4 Principles

- 1. Teaching is scholarly, research-informed and discipline-specific.
- 2. Excellence in learning and teaching is enabled by Student-centered and fit for purpose virtual, physical and social learning environments.
- 3. Learning and teaching practices accommodate the diverse backgrounds and needs of Students and ensure teaching is focused on supporting Graduate Attributes, as outlined in the Graduate Attributes Policy.
- 4. Learning experiences are designed to allow Students to develop knowledge and skills through active engagement with learning materials.
- 5. The University values and recognises innovation and excellence in learning and teaching practice and supports continuous review and improvement of all aspects of teaching.
- 6. Academic Employees participate in professional reflective practice and ongoing professional development activities, and are supported to strive for excellence in teaching practices consistent with the University's mission and strategic objectives.

- 7. Teaching quality is measured through the application of a set of accountability measures and presented in a framework based on thresholds approved by Academic Board.
- 8. Teaching staff are available to Students seeking individual assistance with their studies, at set and publicised times, taking into account the learning needs of the Student cohort.
