

Media Engagement Policy

1 Purpose

To provide direction for the framework of interaction between the University and the Media.

The policy provides University Member and Student responsibilities in relation to direct contact with the Media, and obligations with regard to the management and dissemination of information, which could reasonably reach the Media.

2 Scope

This policy applies when a University Member or Student:

- is authorised to represent the University in the Media for University business purposes; and/or
- makes reference to the University when interacting with the Media in a personal capacity.

Exclusions:

This policy does not apply to personal interaction with:

- the Media, where a University Member or Student makes no reference to University related issues
- internal University publications.

3 Policy Statement

The University will ensure a coordinated and consistent approach when dealing with the Media, while not detracting from the concepts of intellectual and academic freedom.

4 Principles

4.1 Position and profile

The University seeks to celebrate the successes in its education, research and community capacity building through Media engagement.

In all Media - local, national and international, specialist and digital - the University's position and profile must demonstrate a unified position and support its professional reputation.

4.2 Reputation and image

University Members or Students must respect and care for the reputation and image of the University and at all times will conduct themselves in accordance with the University's Code of Conduct Policy, the Student General Conduct Policy and other relevant policies. Consideration will be given to the impact that all communications and/or activities may have on the University's standing in the regional, national and international communities in which it operates.

4.3 Academic and intellectual freedom

The University recognises the rights, concepts and practice of academic and intellectual freedom and enquiry in supporting the role of Universities as places of independent learning and thought, where ideas may be put forward and opinions expressed freely and independently.

University Members and Students have a responsibility to practise academic and intellectual freedom and enquiry in a manner consistent with a responsible and honest search for, and dissemination of, knowledge and truth. This will be undertaken in accordance with the University's Code of Conduct Policy and the Student General Conduct Policy.

4.4 Authorisation to comment

Comment on any University management issue must be made by the Vice-Chancellor or a person authorised by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Vice-Chancellor may at any time give or withdraw authorisation for any University Member or Student to initiate or respond to Media contact.

4.5 Confidential information

University Members and Students must respect the confidentiality of others and ensure that Personal Information and University business (in particular, commercial and in-confidence matters) are accessed and used only for University purposes and not disclosed except where authorised by legislation. University Members and Students who have access to such information have a duty to maintain the confidentiality, integrity and security of such information, irrespective of the storage medium.
