

Policy on Complaints Involving Council Members

1 Purpose

To set out the basis for the handling of Complaints that involve or may reasonably be considered to involve Council members to ensure that the University's procedures:

- comply with legislation;
- observe the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness; and
- provide accountability, integrity and transparency in the way the University Deals With such a Complaint.

2 Scope

This policy and its related procedures apply where a Complaint is received that involves a Council member.

This policy applies to the Vice-Chancellor but does not apply to a Council member who is also a University Employee unless the Complaint or an element of a Complaint relates to that individual's Council role.

3 Policy Statement

The University encourages an organisational culture that responds to valid Complaints in an open and constructive manner, and in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

The University is committed to the maintenance and improvement of a system of Complaints management that facilitates good administration and a safe and cooperative environment.

4 Principles

Complaints about Council members should be handled as fairly, expeditiously and effectively as the circumstances permit.

Council members are expected to comply with the University's Code of Conduct Policy and other University policies that apply to them. Council members are also required to comply with the University of Southern Queensland Act 1998 (Queensland).

An investigation into Complaints of Corrupt Conduct must be conducted subject to the Crime and Corruption Commission's (CCC) monitoring role.

Complaints found to be vexatious, false, or misleading may result in disciplinary action against the person making the Complaint.

Complaints against Council members will be managed in a manner that:

1. aims for the timely resolution of the Complaint and with minimal disruption to the University's business
2. complies with the principles of natural justice
3. ensures as far as possible that privacy and confidentiality are respected for all parties involved in the Complaints process
4. avoids any actual or perceived Conflict of Interest.

Nothing in this policy or related procedure is intended to interfere with the University's statutory obligations under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 (Queensland), the Crime and Corruption Act 2001, or any other related statutory obligations.

A complainant may withdraw their Complaint at any time, however the University is bound to continue to handle a Complaint that, after reasonable consideration, appears to involve or may involve Corrupt Conduct as addressed in the Crime and Corruption Act 2001.
