Delegates and Employees have an obligation to advise of any perceived, potential or actual Conflict of Interest that may undermine the application of natural justice and procedural fairness.

University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and Consultancies must be undertaken through a formal contract developed and approved in accordance with UniSQ's agreed contract management framework.

3.1.1.1 Insurances

An Employee undertaking University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and

Consultancies is covered by the University's professional Indemnity and public liability Insurances, subject to the terms and conditions of those policies, and is also covered by WorkCover Insurance. 3.1.1.3 Working hours, workloads and remuneration

Where Employees receive additional remuneration for University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and Consultancies, the work is normally designated as being undertaken in addition to normal or allocated workload. In these instances the Employee's additional remuneration for the activities undertaken will be via direct payment through the University payroll which will form part of their taxable income.

In instances where the University approaches an Employee to undertake University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and Consultancies, the work may then be designated as being within normal or allocated workload, and the Employee may be provided with relief from teaching, administrative or other responsibilities where negotiated, funded and approved by the Delegate. However, the Employee will not be entitled to receive additional remuneration for work undertaken.

Where an Employee is not entitled to additional remuneration, a Division may contribute the proceeds from University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and Consultancies to a Division based Professional Development Project retained within the Division for use in ways approved by the University which may include, but is not limited to:

Total time commitment will not normally exceed 20% of the Employee's substantive University duties per annum (equivalent to 48 days for a full-time academic Employee). However, this is not an entitlement and is subject to negotiation and approval from the Delegate.

3.1.1.4 Fees and cost recovery

The University seeks to recover the full costs of University Related/Sponsored Outside Employment and Consultancies, and charge market competitive rates for Employees and resources. However, in setting contract prices, the specific circumstances of any project may be taken into account including, but not limited to:

- knowledge of market conditions, including the presence of competitors, any comparative advantage and what the market will bear;
- ownership of the results of the project, including intellectual property;
- cost of negotiations, preparation of submissions and like costs for the project in question;
- cost of managing the project;
- the value to the University of conducting the project;

Project costs, contract prices and fees outlined in any contract proposal are established by the Financial Delegate in accordance with the University's Contract Management Framework, utilising the template for establishing project costs available from the relevant Management Accountant.

3.1.1.5 Revenue disbursement

Where the University is satisfied that all project costs (both direct and infrastructure costs) have been met and that all conditions of the contract are satisfied, the net balance of any income remaining will normally be distributed as follows, unless negotiated otherwise in contract terms and conditions:
