4 Procedures

4.1 Why make a Public Interest Disclosure?

Employees who are prepared to speak up about public sector misconduct, wastage of public funds, suspected unlawful activity or danger to health, safety or the environment can be the most important sources of Information to identify and address problems in public sector administration. The University supports the disclosure of Information about wrongdoing because:

- implementing systems for reporting and dealing with wrongdoing contributes to the integrity of the University;
- the outcomes of Public Interest Disclosures can include improvements to systems that prevent Fraud and other economic loss to the University;

- the community's trust in public administration is strengthened by having strong processes in place for reporting wrongdoing.

When making a Public Interest Disclosure the Discloser receives the protections provided under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, including:

- confidentiality - the Discloser's name and other identifying Information will be protected to the extent possible;
- protection against Reprisal - the Discloser is protected from unfair treatment by the University and Employees of the University as a result of making the Public Interest Disclosure;
- immunity from liability - the Discloser cannot be prosecuted for disclosing the Information but is not exempt from action if they have engaged in wrongdoing;
- protection from defamation - the Discloser has a defence against an accusation of defamation by any Subject Officer.

4.2 What is a Public Interest Disclosure?

Under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, any person can make a disclosure about:

- a Substantial and Specific danger to the health or safety of a person with a Disability;
- the commission of an offence, or contravention of a condition imposed under a provision of legislation mentioned in Schedule 2 of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, if the offence or contravention would be a Substantial and Specific danger to the environment;
- a Reprisal because of a belief that a person has made or intends to make a disclosure.

In addition, public sector officers can make a disclosure about the following public interest matters:

- Corrupt Conduct;
- Maladministration that adversely affects a person's interests in a Substantial and Specific way;
- a substantial misuse of public resources;
- a Substantial and Specific danger to public health or safety;

- Substantial and Specific danger to the environment.

A Discloser can have either a 'Reasonable Belief' that wrongdoing has occurred or provide evidence which tends to show the wrongdoing has occurred.

A disclosure amounts to a Public Interest Disclosure and is covered by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 even if the:

- Discloser reports the Information as part of their duties - such as an auditor reporting a Fraud or an occupational health and safety officer reporting a safety breach;
- disclosure is made anonymously - the Discloser is not required to give their name or any identifying Information;
- Discloser has not identified the material as a Public Interest Disclosure - it is up to the University to assess Information received and decide if it is a Public Interest Disclosure;
- disclosure is unsubstantiated following Investigation - the Discloser is protected when the Information they provide is assessed as a Public Interest Disclosure, whether or not it is subsequently investigated or found to be substantiated.

4.3 Who can a Public Interest Disclosure be disclosed to?

A Public Interest Disclosure must be made to the 'Proper Authority' to receive disclosures of the type being made.

Disclosers are encouraged to make a disclosure to an appropriate officer of the University first. If the matter is not resolved, or the Discloser is concerned about confidentiality, the disclosure may be made to another appropriate agency.

Who to contact within the University:	Other agencies that can receive Public Interest Disclosures:
Any person (including Employees) can make a disclosure to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator • any person in a Supervisor or Manager position • Chief People Officer 	Disclosures can be made to an agency that has a responsibility for investigating the Information disclosed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Crime and Corruption Commission (CCC) for disclosures about Corrupt Conduct including Reprisal • Queensland Ombudsman for disclosures about Maladministration

- The Chief Judicial Officer of a court or tribunal in relation to a disclosure about wrongdoing by a judicial officer.

A disclosure can also be made to a Journalist if the following conditions have been met:

- a valid Public Interest Disclosure was initially made to a Proper Authority, and
- the Proper Authority:
 - decided not to investigate or deal with the disclosure, or
 - investigated the disclosure but did not recommend taking any action, or
 - failed to notify the Discloser within six months of making the disclosure whether or not the disclosure was to be investigated or otherwise dealt with.

A person who makes a disclosure to a Journalist in these circumstances is protected under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010. However, Disclosers should be aware that Journalists are not bound by the confidentiality provisions of section 65 of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010.

4.4 How to make a Public Interest Disclosure

A Discloser can make a Public Interest Disclosure in any way, including anonymously, and either verbally or in writing. To assist in the assessment, and any subsequent Investigation of a Public Interest Disclosure, Disclosers are requested to:

- provide contact details (this could be an email address that is created for the purpose of making the disclosure or a telephone number);
- provide as much Information as possible about the suspected wrongdoing, including:
 - who was involved;
 - what happened;
 - when it happened;
 - where it happened;
 - whether there were any witnesses, and if so, who they are;
 - any evidence that supports the Public Interest Disclosure, and where the evidence is located;
 - any further Information that could help investigate the Public Interest Disclosure.
- provide this Information in writing, where possible.

4.5 Determining whether a matter is a Public Interest Disclosure

If there is any doubt as to whether a matter is a Public Interest Disclosure, further Information may be obtained by the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator to inform the determination. If doubt still remains, the matter will be considered and managed as a Public Interest Disclosure.

Mere disagreements over policy do not meet the threshold for a Public Interest Disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010.

It is an offence under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 to intentionally give false or misleading Information intending it be acted on as a Public Interest Disclosure. Employees may be subject to Disciplinary Action for intentionally giving false or misleading Information in a Public Interest Disclosure, or during an Investigation into a Public Interest Disclosure.

Where a Discloser states they are making a Public Interest Disclosure, but it is assessed that the matter is not a Public Interest Disclosure, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will advise the Discloser:

- that their Information has been received but was not assessed as a Public Interest Disclosure;
- the reasons for the determination;
- the review rights available if the Discloser is dissatisfied with the determination and how to request review;
- any action the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator proposes to take in relation to the matter;
- any other options the Discloser has in relation to the matter.

4.6 Assessing a Public Interest Disclosure

The disclosure will be assessed in accordance with the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, the Queensland Ombudsman's Public Interest Disclosure standards, the University's Public Interest Disclosure Procedure and any other relevant procedure(s).

Once the matter has been assessed as a Public Interest Disclosure, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will advise the Discloser:

- that their Information has been received and assessed as a Public Interest Disclosure;
- the action to be taken by the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator in relation to the disclosure, which could include referring the matter to an external agency, or investigating;
- the likely timeframe involved;
- the name and contact details of the Public Interest Disclosure Support Officer they can contact for updates or advice;
- of the Discloser's obligations regarding confidentiality;
- the protections the Discloser has under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010;
- the commitment of the University to keep appropriate records and maintain confidentiality, except where permitted under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010;
- how updates regarding intended actions and outcomes will be provided to the Discloser;

- contact details for the University's Employee Assistance Program.

If the Public Interest Disclosure has been made anonymously and the Discloser has not provided any contact details, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will not be able to acknowledge the Public Interest Disclosure or provide any updates.

4.7 Referring a Public Interest Disclosure

If the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator decides there is another proper authority that is better able to deal with the Public Interest Disclosure, the Public Interest Disclosure may be referred to that agency. This may be because:

- the Public Interest Disclosure concerns wrongdoing by that agency or an Employee of that agency;
- that agency has the power to investigate or remedy the matter.

Before referring the Public Interest Disclosure to another agency, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will conduct a risk assessment and will not proceed with the referral if there is an unacceptable risk of Reprisal.

It may also be necessary to refer the Public Interest Disclosure to another agency because of a legislative obligation, for example, refer a matter to the Crime and Corruption Commission where there is a reasonable suspicion that the matter involves or may involve Corrupt Conduct.

The confidentiality obligations of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 permit appropriate officers of the University to communicate with another agency about the referral of a Public Interest Disclosure. Officers will exercise discretion in their contacts with any other agency.

The Discloser will be advised of the action taken by the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator.

4.8 Risk assessment and protection from Reprisal

Disclosers should not suffer any form of Detriment as a result of making a Public Interest Disclosure. Upon receiving a Public Interest Disclosure, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will conduct a risk assessment to assess the likelihood of the Discloser (or witnesses or affected third parties) suffering Reprisal action as a result of having made the disclosure. This assessment will take into account the actual and reasonably perceived risk of the Discloser (or witnesses or affected third parties) suffering Detriment and will include consultation with the Discloser.

If a Disclosure is anonymous, a risk assessment will be undertaken on the basis of the Information available in the Public Interest Disclosure. The risk assessment will also take into account the risk to persons who may be suspected of making the Public Interest Disclosure.

Consistent with the assessed level of risk, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will develop and implement a risk management plan and arrange any reasonably necessary support or protection for the Discloser (or witnesses or affected third parties).

The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will regularly reassess the risk of Reprisal while the Public Interest Disclosure is being managed, reviewing the risk management plan if required, and consulting appropriately with the Discloser.

In the event of Reprisal action being alleged or suspected, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will:

- attend to the safety of the Discloser (or witnesses or affected third parties) as a matter of priority;
- review its risk assessment, risk management plan and any protective measures needed to mitigate any further risk of Reprisal;
- manage any allegation of a Reprisal as a Public Interest Disclosure in its own right.

4.9 Declining to take action on a Public Interest Disclosure

Under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, the Vice-Chancellor may decide, on the advice received from the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator, not to investigate or deal with a Public Interest Disclosure in various circumstances, including:

- the Information disclosed has already been investigated or dealt with by another process;
- the Information disclosed is more appropriately dealt with by another process;
- the age of the Information makes it impractical to investigate;
- the Information disclosed is too trivial and dealing with it would substantially and unreasonably divert the University from the performance of its functions;
- another agency with jurisdiction to investigate the Information has informed the University that an Investigation is not warranted.

If a Decision is made not to investigate or deal with a Public Interest Disclosure the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will give the Discloser written reasons for that Decision, that includes detailing how the Discloser may exercise their right of review of the Decision not to investigate or deal with a Public Interest Disclosure.

If the Discloser is dissatisfied with the Decision, they can request a review by writing to the Vice-Chancellor within (28) University Business Days of receiving the written reasons for Decision.

4.10 Communication with Disclosers

Under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010, the University must give reasonable Information to a Discloser in writing. Reasonable Information about a Disclosure includes at least the following:

- confirmation that the Disclosure was received by the University;
- a description of the action proposed to be taken, or taken, by the University in relation to the Disclosure;
- if action has been taken by the University in relation to the Disclosure - a description of the results of the action;
- the protections under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010;
- the confidentiality obligations of the Discloser and the University;
- support arrangements.

The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator or Public Interest Disclosure Support Officer will maintain contact with the Discloser and provide regular updates during the management of the Public Interest Disclosure.

The University need not give Information if giving the Information would be likely to adversely affect:

- anybody's safety; or
- the Investigation of an offence or possible offence; or
- necessary confidentiality about an informant's existence or identity.

4.11 Confidentiality

While the University will make every attempt to protect confidentiality, a Discloser's identity may need to be disclosed to:

- provide Natural Justice to Subject Officers;

- respond to a court order, legal directive or court proceedings.

The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will ensure that communication with all parties involved will be arranged discreetly to avoid identifying the Discloser wherever possible.

Disclosers should be aware that while the University will make every attempt to keep their details confidential, it cannot guarantee that others will not try to deduce their identity.

4.12 Support for Disclosers

The University recognises that providing appropriate support to a Discloser is an important feature of effective Public Interest Disclosure Management Program.

An assessment will be undertaken to identify the support needs of the Discloser. Where appropriate, a Public Interest Disclosure Support Officer will be assigned to the Discloser. The Public Interest Disclosure Support Officer will assist the Discloser to access Information about Public Interest Disclosures, protections available under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 and the Public Interest Disclosure management process. The Public Interest Disclosure Support Officer will proactively contact the Discloser to offer support.

Information and support will be provided to the Discloser until the matter is finalised.

Making a Public Interest Disclosure does not prevent 'Reasonable Management Action'. That means that the Discloser will be continue to be managed in accordance with normal, fair and reasonable management practices during and after the handling of the Public Interest Disclosure.

4.13 Investigating a Public Interest Disclosure

The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator is responsible for facilitating the Investigation process and may allocate a Public Interest Disclosure Administrator to review the Investigation report and determine whether the alleged wrongdoing is substantiated.

If the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator determines that an Investigation of a Public Interest Disclosure is warranted, this will be done with consideration for the:

- principles of Natural Justice;
- obligation under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 to protect Confidential Information;
- obligation under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 to protect officers from Reprisal;
- interests of Subject Officers.

A Public Interest Disclosure Investigator must be independent. They should also, to the extent possible, have expertise in the area to be covered by the Investigation.

The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will consult with University officers with the necessary delegations concerning the allocation of a Public Interest Disclosure Investigator. If the Public Interest Disclosure matter requires referral to an external agency, the Investigation will be conducted in accordance with the directions given to the University by the external agency.

The Public Interest Disclosure Investigator, once appointed, will conduct an Investigation conforming to the Investigation Terms of Reference and provide a report to the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator. The report should include an assessment as to whether the alleged conduct that is the subject of the Public Interest Disclosure can be substantiated, and where appropriate, may include recommendations for further action.

Where the Public Interest Disclosure Investigator recommends that other action may be warranted, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator should prepare a report to the Vice-Chancellor, or Chancellor if the Vice-Chancellor is precluded on any grounds.

If, as a result of Investigation, the Information about wrongdoing provided in the Public Interest Disclosure is substantiated, the Vice-Chancellor will ensure that appropriate action is taken.

Where the Investigation does not substantiate wrongdoing, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will facilitate a review of systems, policies and procedures to identify whether there are improvements that can be made and consider if staff training is required.

4.14 Rights of Subject Officers

The University acknowledges that for Subject Officers the experience may be stressful. The Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will protect their rights by:

- assuring them that the Public Interest Disclosure will be dealt with impartially, fairly and reasonably in accordance with the principles of Natural Justice;
- informing them that the Public Interest Disclosure is an allegation only until Information or evidence obtained through an Investigation substantiates the allegation;
- providing them with Information about their rights and the progress and outcome of any Investigation;
- referring them to the University's Employee Assistance Program for support.

Information and support will be provided to a Subject Officer until the matter is finalised.

4.15 Record-keeping

In accordance with its obligations under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 and the Public Records Act 2002, the Public Interest Disclosure Coordinator will ensure that:

- accurate data is collected about the receipt and management of Public Interest Disclosures;
- anonymised data is reported to the Office of the Queensland Ombudsman in its' role as the oversight agency, through the Public Interest Disclosure reporting database.

Records about disclosures, Investigations, and related Decisions will be kept secure and accessible only to appropriately authorised people involved in the management of the Public Interest Disclosure.
