

Library Content Management Procedure

1 Purpose

To provide direction and guidance about how the Library collects, curates and enables access to content and resources that support the learning, teaching and Research Activities of the University whilst adhering to copyright and contractual obligations and supporting the principles of Open Access.

2 Scope

This Procedure applies to all users of Library content, including Students and University Members.

3 Procedure Overview

This Procedure outlines how the Library provides access to and manages content which supports the learning, teaching and Research Activities of the University.

This Procedure aligns with the:

- Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021: Standard 3.3 Learning Resources and Educational Support
- National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018: Standard 6 Student Support Services

4 Procedures

4.1 Content acquisition and management

The Library oversees the purchase and curation of content in accordance with the Procurement Policy. This allows Purchasing of resources in a manner that is cost-effective.

4.2 Content selection

When selecting content, the Library:

- facilitates equitable access to all Students and Employees wherever they study or research by preferring electronic and digital formats over physical formats

- responds to changes in Courses, Student numbers and research priorities, while balancing the differing costs of resources in various disciplines
- avoids unnecessary duplication of resources
- selects free and Open Access content to replace or supplement paid subscriptions and purchases when possible and appropriate
- uses evidence to identify and respond to the content needs of Students and Employees
- only accepts gifts and donations on the understanding that items not selected for the Library will be discarded
- collaborates with schools and colleges on Purchasing and providing access to resources required for learning and teaching purposes
- offers interlibrary loan and resource-sharing services to Students and Employees as an alternative to Purchasing, where appropriate.

4.3 Content curation

The Library curates and maintains access to University mandated repositories which manage the following activities whilst complying with copyright and contractual obligations:

- Preserve and make accessible the Research Output of the University. The Library supports the F.A.I.R. principles of making Research Outputs findable, accessible, interoperable and reusable. Further, the Library supports the CARE (Collective Benefit, Authority to control, Responsibility and Ethics) principles for Indigenous data governance. For further information on how the University supports the FAIR and CARE data principles, please refer to Research Data Management and Indigenous Data Governance Schedule.
- Store and make accessible Digital Learning Objects created for learning and teaching. Employees can contribute objects to the repository to enable sharing, discovery and reuse via learning management systems.
- Encourage the use of Open Access or Creative Commons Licensing to make Research Outputs and learning objects findable, accessible, interoperable and reusable. Objects and files contributed to the Library's repositories are published subject to copyright and the Intellectual Property Policy and subordinate Procedures.

4.4 Content evaluation and deselection

The Library regularly assesses its collections to ensure resources support the University's learning, teaching and Research Activities.

Deselection decisions are made based on evidence and consider utilisation, subject scope and coverage, accessibility, financial and physical space constraints.
