

Academic Freedom and Freedom of Speech Policy

1 Purpose

To:

- affirm the importance of the University's institutional autonomy under law in the regulation of its affairs, including in the protection of freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom;
- ensure that freedom of lawful Speech of all University Employees, Students and Visitors is treated as a paramount value;
- ensure that Academic Freedom is treated as a defining value by the University; and
- ensure that freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom are not restricted nor, in their exercise, burdened otherwise than by restrictions or burdens Imposed by Law and as set out in this policy.

2 Scope

This policy applies to:

- the University's Council, officers, Employees, Students and other decision-making bodies, including the Academic Board and Academic Board Members; and
- Student representative bodies to the extent that they have policies and rules which are capable of being applied to restrict freedom of Speech or Academic Freedom.

3 Policy Statement

The principles of this policy are intended to guide the preparation, review, amendment, interpretation and application of the University's industrial agreements, contracts, policies and procedures. This policy prevails to the extent of any inconsistency with the University's other policies or procedures.

This Policy aligns with:

- Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021: Standard 6.1

4 Principles

4.1 Freedom of Speech

The University is a place where every Employee, Student and Visitor enjoys freedom to express themselves in the advancement of knowledge by argument and disagreement in the exercise of freedom of Speech when using University Facilities.

4.2 Academic Freedom

The University will promote and defend Academic Freedom as a defining value of the University in the conduct of its affairs, so that all Employees and Students may engage without fear or favour in the University's core mission of the advancement of knowledge.

4.3 Limitations on Freedoms

The University will protect freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom subject only to restrictions or burdens:

- Imposed by Law;
- imposed by the reasonable and proportionate action necessary to the discharge of the University's learning, teaching and Research activities;
- imposed by the right and freedom of others to express themselves and receive information and opinions, recognising the freedom of Employees and Students to express their respective views;
- imposed by the reasonable and proportionate regulation necessary to discharge the University's Duty to Foster the Wellbeing of Employees, Students and Visitors;
- imposed by the reasonable and proportionate regulation necessary to prevent the advancement of theories or propositions
 - which fall below scholarly standards to such an extent as to be detrimental to the University's character as an institution of higher learning, and
 - where the advancement of such theories or propositions might, if given effect, result in physical or mental harm to others; or
- imposed by the University by way of its reasonable requirements applicable to the Academic Programs and Courses to be delivered and the content and means of their delivery.

Employees are not precluded from including content in an Academic Program or Course or undertaking Research solely on the ground that it may offend or shock any Employee, Student or group of Students.

4.4 Exercise of Freedoms not Misconduct

The exercise by Employees or Students of:

- freedom of Speech, subject to any restrictions or burdens set out in this policy, shall not constitute misconduct nor attract any penalty or other adverse action by reference only to its content; or
- Academic Freedom, subject to any restrictions or burdens set out in this policy, shall not constitute misconduct nor attract any penalty or other adverse action.

4.5 Visitors

The University has the right and responsibility to determine the circumstances, terms and conditions upon which it shall permit Visitors to speak using University Facilities.

The University shall not refuse permission for the use of University Facilities by a Visitor, nor attach conditions to its permission, solely on the basis of the content of the proposed Speech by the Visitor. However, the University may refuse permission to any Visitor to speak using University Facilities where the content of the Speech is or is likely to:

- be Unlawful;
- prejudice the fulfilment by the University of its Duty to Foster the Wellbeing of Employees, Students and Visitors; or
- involve the advancement of theories or propositions but which fall below scholarly standards to such an extent as to be detrimental to the University's character as an institution of higher learning, and where the advancement of such theories or propositions might, if given effect, result in physical or mental harm to others.

4.6 Third Parties

In entering into affiliation, collaborative or contractual arrangements with third parties and accepting donations from third parties that are subject to conditions, the University shall take all reasonable steps to minimise the restrictions or burdens imposed by these arrangements or conditions on the freedom of Speech or the Academic Freedom of any Employees or Students when carrying out Research or study under these arrangements or subject to these conditions.
