

Cheating

1 Definition

Where a Student attempts to gain an unauthorised academic advantage, or assists another Student to do so, in a way that is dishonest or unfair.

Examples of cheating may include but are not limited to:

- unauthorised use of information, materials, devices, sources or practices in completing academic activities;
- failing to comply with examination or Assessment rules or directions; and
- impersonation of a Student or University Employee or allowing oneself to be impersonated in order to gain an unauthorised academic advantage relative to other Students.
